

[Photos taken by L. van Paassen & R. Tollenaar]

Ingeokring Autumn Symposium

Delft underground

Friday 13 November 13:45-16:45

at the former Royal Army Museum, Korte Geer 1, 2611 CA Delft

Invited Speakers: Peter Vos (Deltares),
Antoine Feddema (Volkerinfradesign), Bas Vos (Royal Boskalis Westminster BV),
Marc Everaars (Grontmij), and Leon van Paassen (TUDelft)

Free entrance, open to members and non members.

For more information about the Ingeokring excursions, the Newsletter, best thesis award, Price's prize, membership, and contact, consult: www.ingeokring.nl

Ingeokring Autumn Symposium

Delft Underground

- 13:45      Robrecht Schmitz (President of Ingeokring)
Opening of the symposium
- 14:00      Peter Vos (Deltares)
The landscape evolution of the Westland / Delftland region
during the last 3500 years
- 14:30      Marc Everaars (Grontmij)
Optimising D-wall construction by application of predefined measures –
Observational method
- 15:00      Pause
- 15:30      Esther Rosenbrand (Royal HaskoningDHV)
Best thesis award
- 15:45      Antoine Feddema (Volkerinfradesign) and Bas Vos (Royal Boskalis Westminster)
The A4: A modern polder road
- 16:15      Leon van Paassen (TUDelft)
Beneficial use of dredged sediments, a case study in the Delftse Hout
- 16:45      Milcar Vijlbrief (deputy secretary of Ingeokring, BAM)
Closure of the symposium and opening of “after symposium” drinks